

Family-Professional Partnerships & Other Designs on the Future

1:00-1:15 p.m.	Welcome & Introductions	Susan Epstein, Chair
	Year in Preview 2005-2006 Focus of Work Group Activities, 2005-2006 - Welcome: New Consortium Project Director
1:15-2:15 p.m.	Family Partners Initiative	Linda Freeman, Director of Family Initiatives
Education	Building a New Partnership Model: A Report from the Family Partners Initiative	Laura Noble & Risa Shames Harvard Pilgrim Health Care
Discussion	Panel Discussion and Q & A with Pilot Site Representatives - Families as Educators/Advisors - Leadership for Parent Advisory Groups Next Steps: Launching the Family-Professional Partners Institute	Sonya Harrison & Cathy Saunders Mass Hospital School Tricia Ryan & Chris Schneider Affiliated Pediatric Practices Erin Ward & Stephanie Porter Coordinated Care Services, Children's Hospital
2:15-2:20 p.m.	"Concert for the Consortium" with the Longwood Symphony Orchestra - December 3, 2005	Nicole Roos Massachusetts Department of Public Health
Information		Amy Weinstock, Event Planning Committee
2:20-2:35 p.m.	Report from Consortium Steering Committee
Action	Summary of Recommendations for Sustainability: Governance; Membership; Financing Action Item: Please take a few moments to complete the 2005 Consortium Participant Survey. Outreach on Care Coordination Care Coordination: Definition and Principles Action Item: To receive a packet of discussion materials, please e-mail your name and contact information to Kathy Ryan at kryan@hmea.org. Parameters of a Statewide Care Coordination System Action Item: The Care Coordination Work Group is reaching out to key stakeholders – including private payers, legislators, and minority and immigrant community organizations – to explore these issues in more depth. Refer contacts to Debby Allen at	Ron Benham, Consortium Steering Committee; Massachusetts Department of Public Health Kathy Ryan, Care Coordination Work Group; Horace Mann Educational Associates

Continued...

2:35-3:20 p.m.	What's on Your Mind? Help Design Our Future Small Group Discussion • As we set the agendas for the Consortium meetings for the coming year, what are the most pressing issues for CYSCHN that you would like to see the Consortium address? • How can we increase the diversity of both the families and the organizations represented within the Consortium? Ways to Participate in the Consortium Focus of Work Group Activities, 2005-2006	Small Group discussions to offer an opportunity for participants to meet and exchange ideas about the Consortium with their colleagues
3:20-3:30 p.m.	National Policy Updates & News • Proposed changes for federal Medicaid Program • News on CSHCN in the Gulf States - Katrina's aftermath	Deborah Allen , Boston University School of Public Health
3:30-4:30 p.m.	Networking: Members of the Consortium are invited to use this time for informal networking, Work Group or sub-committee meetings, etc. Take advantage of easy access to colleagues, associates and friends.	