

Enhancing Compassionate Care in Medical Homes: Lessons Learned from Palliative Care

12 Noon (Bring Your Lunch!) Screening of “Making Every Moment Count.” Psychologist and award-winning filmmaker Leora Kuttner profiles five children with advanced illness, ranging from newborns to teenagers, as well as the families and health professionals who support them in hospitals, hospice programs and at home. 40 mins. National Film Board of Canada, 2004.

1:00-1:10 p.m.	Welcome & Introductions Brief Informational Items & Announcements	Susan Epstein, Chair
1:10-1:20 p.m. Information	Update from Medical Home Work Group - Status of Medical Home partnerships in Massachusetts - New Medical Home grants - Are we addressing all elements of Medical Home? - How do we ensure our system delivers compassionate care?	Bev Nazarian, Chair, Consortium's Medical Home Work Group, and Committee on Disabilities, Massachusetts Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics
1:20-1:40 p.m. Education	Making Compassionate Care a Reality - Medical Home and its components - Compassion, the neglected discussion? - What are areas of common need for families of CSHCN and children & youth with life-limiting conditions? What are needs of clinicians treating these individuals? - Existing and emerging resources on the web ... and elsewhere	Whit Garberson, Parent, Clinical Social Worker
1:40-1:50 p.m.	One Family's Experience of Compassionate Care Compassionate care can be hard to define, but we know it when we experience it. Trese Ainsworth shared some of her experiences, and we've begun to collect others. By collecting anecdotal examples of compassionate care, the Consortium hopes to encourage the growth of compassion in medical homes and other healthcare settings. We welcome you to read the collection and submit your own examples.	Trese Ainsworth, Parent
1:50-3:00 p.m. Education	Lessons Learned in Pediatric Palliative Care and Links to the Medical Home - The IPPC experience Difficult Conversations in Pediatric Palliative Care video excerpt - Panel Discussion and Audience Responses Questions: - How can lessons learned from palliative care be applied in Medical Homes? Can palliative care and primary care providers learn from each other? - Should the Consortium be working to promote pediatric palliative care – and if so, how?	David Browning, Initiative for Pediatric Palliative Care Panelists: Trese Ainsworth, Parent Meg Comeau, Parent Laurie Glader, Physician Bev Nazarian, Physician
3:00-3:10 p.m.	Wrap-Up Possible next steps for MHWG, the Consortium, and others	Bev Nazarian
3:10-3:15 p.m.	Policy Updates & Announcements
3:15-4:15 p.m.	Networking: Members of the Consortium are invited to use this time for informal networking, Work Group or sub-committee meetings, etc. Take advantage of easy access to colleagues, associates and friends.

Link to IPPC Web Site

IPPC FAQ's \(pdf\)